(4) Where the procuring agent is engaged, a procurement committee or a tender committee shall adjudicate the contract award.

(5) A procuring entity shall not contract out both the procurement functions and the contract management functions to the same procuring agent.
(6) None of the functions of the accounting officer, procurement committee or the tender committee shall be contracted out to a procuring agent.

20. (1) A procuring entity shall prepare a procurement plan under section 26(3) (a) of the Act for each financial year as part of the annual budget preparation process.

(2) Annual procurement planning shall be integrated with applicable budget processes and based on indicative or approved budgets, as appropriate.

(3) Where appropriate, multi-year procurement plans may be prepared and shall be integrated into the medium term budgetary expenditure framework.

(4) A head of department shall submit an annual procurement plan to the accounting officer at least thirty days before the close of each financial year.

(5) The consolidated annual procurement plan shall be prepared by the procurement unit and approved by the head of the procuring entity and where applicable by the board of directors or a similar body.

21. (1) The annual procurement plan for each procuring entity shall include-

(a) a detailed breakdown of the goods, works, or services required;

(b) a schedule of the planned delivery, implementation or completion dates for all goods, works, or services required;

(c) an indication and justification for whether it shall be procured within a single-year period or under a multi-year arrangement;

(d) an indication of which items can be aggregated for procurement as a single package or for procurement through any applicable arrangements for common-user items;

(e) an indication of which items shall be packaged into lots;

(f) an estimate of the value of each package of goods, works or services required and an indication of the budget available and sources of funding;

(g) an indication of the appropriate procurement method for each procurement requirement.

(2) where transfer of responsibilities is justified, the optimal period of such transfer shall be established taking into account seasonal price variations, warehousing and distribution capacity, and product shelf life;

(3) The Authority shall issue instructions to the procuring entities on the format for preparing procurement plans.
22. (1) Every procurement requirement shall be initiated using a purchase requisition which shall include all necessary information pertaining to the procurement.

(2) When estimating the value of the goods, works or services, the procuring entity shall ensure that the estimate is realistic and based on up-to-date information on economic and market conditions.

(3) The purchase requisition shall be approved by the person specified in the First Schedule, prior to the initiation of procurement proceedings.

(4) Approved procurement requisitions shall be submitted to the procurement unit of the procuring entity to initiate procurement proceedings.

(5) Upon receipt of the approved purchase requisition, the procurement unit shall prepare a procurement plan for each individual procurement requirement, which shall include an estimate of the time required for each stage in the procurement cycle.

PART III-GENERAL PROCUREMENT RULES

23. (1) Where the procuring entity conducts a pre-qualification procedure pursuant to the Act, it shall publish an invitation to candidates to submit applications to be pre-qualified.

(2) The invitation referred to in paragraph (1) shall include-

(2) No procurement approval shall be made to operate retrospectively to any date earlier than the date on which it is made.

(3) No procurement approval shall be made by a person exercising delegated authority unless such delegation has been approved by the accounting officer.

(4) A procuring entity shall maintain specimen signatures of all persons authorised to make approvals within the procurement process.

(5) Responsibility for each approval made in the procurement procedure shall rest with both the person who delegates the authority and the person to whom the approval authority is delegated.
28. (1) For the purposes of section 39(8) of the Act, the threshold below which exclusive preference shall be given to citizens of Kenya, shall be the sum of—

(a) fifty million shillings for procurements in respect of goods or services;

(b) two hundred million shillings for procurements in respect of works.

(2) The margin of preference—

(a) for the purposes of section 39(8) (b) (i) of the Act, shall be fifteen percent of the evaluated price of the tender;

(b) for the purposes of section 39(8) (b) (ii) of the Act, shall be—

(i) six percent of the evaluated price of the tender where the percentage of shareholding of the locals is less than twenty percent; and

(ii) eight percent of the evaluated price of the tender where the percentage of shareholding of the locals is less than fifty one percent but above twenty percent

29. (1) The standard tender documents for purposes of section 29 (4) of the Act shall be as set out in the Third Schedule to these Regulations.

(2) Pursuant to section 9(c) (i) of the Act, the Authority shall avail the standard tender documents to procuring entities.

30. Pursuant to section 9(c)(i) of the Act, the Authority may, in consultation with specific procuring entities, develop internal procurement manuals, administrative guidelines and best practices manuals specific to such entities consistent with the Act and these Regulations.

31. For the purposes of section 47(b) of the Act, any variation of a contract shall be effective only if—

(a) the price variation is based on the prevailing consumer price index obtained from Central Bureau of Statistics or the monthly inflation rate issued by the Central Bank of Kenya;

(b) the quantity variation for goods and services does not exceed ten percent of the original contract quantity;

(c) the quantity variation for works does not exceed fifteen percent of the original contract quantity; and

(d) the price or quantity variation is to be executed within the period of the contract.

32. (1) A contract document shall specify the grounds on which the contract may be terminated and specify the procedures applicable to termination.
(2) The procurement unit shall obtain the approval of the tender committee which authorised the original contract, prior to terminating the contract and the request for approval shall clearly state-

(a) the reasons for termination;

(b) the contractual grounds for termination; and

(c) the cost of terminating the contract.

33. (1) The Authority shall issue guidelines on the format of procurement documents to be adopted for approvals and the documentation of the procurement procedure.

(2) The Authority may issue standard forms by which a procuring entity shall carry out specific procurement procedures.

(3) The documents shall be clear and bear references to the procurement requirement, dates and signatures of authorizing officers.

(4) The Authority may, from time to time, issue circulars and guidelines on the content of procurement documentation.

34. (1) For the purposes of section 45(2) (h) of the Act, the following documents shall be treated as part of the procurement records-

(a) where the procurement or the disposal requirement involves feasibility studies and surveys directly carried out or accepted by the procuring entity in order to prepare the tender documents, the reports and other documents resulting from these studies and surveys;

(b) all receipts for the sale of tender documents, request for clarifications and clarifications issued by the procuring entity;

(c) records of any negotiations;

(d) end of activity report as may be stipulated by the Authority.

(2) The Authority may issue guidelines relating to the use, record management, filing and storage of procurement documentation.

(3) A procuring entity shall maintain an individual file for each procurement requirement containing all information documents and communications relating to that procurement proceeding and such file shall be marked with the relevant procurement reference number.

PART IV –OPEN TENDERING

35. A procuring entity that conducts procurement using the open tender method shall be subject to the procurement thresholds set out in the First Schedule.

36. For the purposes of section 71(c) of the Act, the minimum period of time between advertisement and deadline for submission of international tenders shall be thirty days.
37. For the purposes of section 54(2) of the Act, the threshold for national advertising shall be as set out in the First Schedule.

38. For the purposes of section 52 (3) (k), the tender documents shall contain-

(a) a statement whether tenders which do not conform precisely to the description of requirements, but which meet the objectives of the procurement in an alternative manner, may be permitted and the manner in which such tenders shall be evaluated;

(b) instructions on the sealing, labeling and submission of tenders, including the location and deadline for submission of tenders and procedures for the withdrawal, modification or replacement of tenders;

(c) any applicable preference programs and the margin of preference and the manner in which such preference will be applied in the evaluation;

(d) the procedures and criteria to be used in cases where a procuring entity decides to invite tenders in two separate phases for the purposes of carrying out the respective technical and financial evaluation of the same tender;

(e) the procedure and criteria to be used to evaluate and compare the tenders as set out in regulations 46 to 52.

39. (1) Pursuant to section A procuring entity may, pursuant to section 56 (2) of the Act, charge a fee not exceeding five thousand shillings for copies of tender or pre-qualification documents.

(2) In arriving at the fee payable under paragraph (1), a procuring entity shall only have regard to the costs related to printing, copying, and distribution or of converting the documents into electronic form.

(3) Where the tender documents are obtained electronically, the fee payable under paragraph (2) shall be paid at the time of submission of the tender.

(4) Where tender documents are sold, the procuring entity may allow potential tenderers to inspect the documents, prior to purchasing the document.

40. The minimum time for the preparation of tenders for the purposes of section 55 (1) of the Act shall be a period of twenty one days.

41. (1) The amount of any tender security under section 57 (2) of the Act shall be expressed either as a fixed amount or as a percentage of the estimated value of the contract and shall not in either case exceed two percent of the estimated value of the contract.

(2) In determining the amount of tender security under paragraph (1), a procuring entity shall take into account-

(a) the cost to tenderers of obtaining a tender security;
(b) the estimated value of the contract; and
(c) the risk of tenderers failing to fulfill the conditions of their tenders.

(3) The tender security to be provided under section 57 of the Act shall be in any of the following forms only-
(a) cash;
(b) a bank guarantee;
(c) such insurance company guarantee as may be approved by the Authority;
(d) a letter of credit.

(4) No tender security shall be accepted under the Act unless such security is valid for a period of at least thirty days after the expiry of the tender validity period.

(5) The procuring entity shall, where it extends the tender validity period, request the tenderers’ to extend the period of validity of their tender securities.

(6) A procuring entity may, where it deems necessary, verify the authenticity of any tender security.

42. (1) The period of validity of a tender shall be stated in calendar days from the date of opening of the tender.
(2) For purposes of this regulation, a calendar day includes any day of the week including Saturday, Sunday and a public holiday.

43. (1) Where a tenderer makes an inquiry relating to the tender documents under section 53(2) of the Act, the procuring entity shall promptly reply in writing.
(2) The reply under paragraph (1) shall be copied to all tenderers and shall include a description of the inquiry but without identifying the source.
(3) The procuring entity shall not be bound to reply to inquiries received after the deadline for submitting inquiries stipulated in the tender documents.

44. A procuring entity shall, for purposes of section 58(4) of the Act, ensure that-
(a) a tender box has two locks;
(b) the keys for each lock are kept by a different officer; and
(c) the tender box remains locked until the time for tender opening.

45. (1) Pursuant to section 60 (5) (b) of the Act, the total price of the tender-
(a) may not be read out where a tender consists of numerous items that are quoted for separately;
(b) shall not be read out where a tender is preceded by a technical evaluation and such tender has not met the technical evaluation criteria.

(2) Where a tenderer fails a technical evaluation under paragraph (1) (b) a procuring entity shall return the financial proposal unopened.

(3) A tender opening committee shall, where applicable, record in the tender opening minutes whether any sample has been submitted in respect of any tender.

46. A procuring entity shall, for purposes of section 66 (6) of the Act, evaluate the tenders within a period of thirty days after the opening of the tender.

47. (1) Upon opening of the tenders under section 60 of the Act, the evaluation committee shall first conduct a preliminary evaluation to determine whether-

(a) the tender has been submitted in the required format;

(b) any tender security submitted is in the required form, amount and validity period;

(c) the tender has been signed by the person lawfully authorised to do so;

(d) the required number of copies of the tender have been submitted;

(e) the tender is valid for the period required;

(f) all required documents and information have been submitted; and

(g) any required samples have been submitted.

(2) The evaluation committee shall reject tenders, which do not satisfy the requirements set out in paragraph (1).

48. (1) A procuring entity shall reject all tenders, which are not responsive in accordance with section 64 of the Act.

(2) the classification of a deviation from the requirements as minor under section 64(2) (a) of the Act shall be applied uniformly and consistently to all the tenders received by the procuring entity.

49. (1) Upon completion of the preliminary evaluation under Regulation 47, the evaluation committee shall conduct a technical evaluation by comparing each tender to the technical requirements of the description of goods, works or services in the tender document.

(2) The evaluation committee shall reject tenders which do not satisfy the technical requirements under paragraph (1).
50. (1) Upon completion of the technical evaluation under Regulation 49, the evaluation committee shall conduct a financial evaluation and comparison to determine the evaluated price of each tender.

   (2) The evaluated price for each bid shall be determined by-
      (a) taking the bid price, as read out at the bid opening;
      (b) taking into account any corrections made by a procuring entity relating to arithmetic errors in a tender;
      (c) taking into account any minor deviation from the requirements accepted by a procuring entity under section 64(2) (a) of the Act;
      (e) where applicable, converting all tenders to the same currency, using a uniform exchange rate prevailing at the date indicated in the tender documents;
      (f) applying any discounts offered in the tender;
      (g) applying any margin of preference indicated in the tender documents.

   (3) Tenders shall be ranked according to their evaluated price and the successful tender shall be the tender with the lowest evaluated price in accordance with section 66(4) of the Act.

51. (1) An evaluation report prepared under section 66(5) of the Act shall include-
      (a) a summary of all the tenders received and opened;
      (b) the results of the preliminary evaluation under Regulation 47;
      (c) the results of the technical evaluation under Regulation 49;
      (d) reasons why any tenders were rejected;
      (e) details of any minor deviations accepted under section 64 of the Act and the way in which such deviations were quantified and taken into account in the evaluation and comparison of the tenders;
      (f) the evaluated price of each tender, showing any discounts, corrections or adjustments to the tender price and any conversion to a common currency;
      (g) the ranking of the tenders each according to its total evaluated price;
      (h) the results of any confirmation of qualification conducted under Regulation 52; and
      (i) a recommendation to award the contract to the lowest evaluated tender;
      (j) such other recommendation as may be necessary.
(2). The evaluation report prepared under paragraph (1) shall be considered by the tender committee, prior to awarding the contract or taking any other action in relation to the procurement as may be necessary.

52. (1) Where so indicated in the tender documents, a procuring entity may, prior to the award of the tender, confirm the qualifications of the tenderer who submitted the lowest evaluated responsive tender, in order to determine whether the tenderer is qualified to be awarded the contract in accordance with section 31(1) of the Act.

(2) Where so indicated in the tender documents, if the lowest evaluated tenderer is determined under paragraph (1) not to be qualified in accordance with the Act, the tender shall be rejected and a similar confirmation of qualifications conducted on the tenderer who submitted the next lowest evaluated responsive bid.

PART V – ALTERNATIVE PROCUREMENT PROCEDURES

53. (1) A procuring entity may use restricted tendering only if the conditions provided in sections 29(3) and 73(2) of the Act are satisfied.

(2) A procuring entity that conducts procurement using the restricted tendering method shall be subject to the procurement thresholds set out in the First Schedule.

54. (1) Save as is otherwise provided in this Regulation, the procedure for open tendering set out in the Act and these Regulations shall, for the purposes of section 73(1) of the Act, apply mutatis mutandis to restricted tendering.

(2) A procuring entity shall, for the purpose of identifying pre-qualified contractors pursuant to section 73(2) (a) of the Act, use the pre-qualification procedures set out in Regulations 23, 24 and 25 or otherwise as permitted under section 32 of the Act.

(3) Where restricted tendering is used pursuant to section 73(2) (b) of the Act, the procuring entity shall invite tenders from at least ten persons selected from the list maintained under Regulation 8 (3) (a).

(4) Where restricted tendering is used pursuant to section 73(2) (c) of the Act, the procuring entity shall invite tenders from all the known suppliers of the goods, works or services.

(5) The minimum time for the preparation of tenders for the purposes of section 73 of the Act shall be a period of fourteen days.

55. (1) A procuring entity that conducts procurement using the request for proposals method pursuant to section 76 of the Act shall be subject to the procurement thresholds set out in the First Schedule.
(2) The notice inviting expressions of interest prepared by the procuring entity pursuant to section 78 of the Act shall give a minimum period of fourteen days for tenderers to submit their expressions of interest.

56. For the purposes of section 79(b) of the Act, the terms of reference prepared by a procuring entity shall set out-

(a) the background including the reasons necessitating the procurement;

(b) the objects to be achieved by the procurement;

(c) the output expected from the person awarded the tender;

(d) the qualifications necessary for a person to be awarded the tender.

57. The procedure for preliminary evaluation of open tenders set out in Regulation 47 shall apply to evaluation of proposals under section 82 of the Act.

58. (1) A procuring entity shall not enter into any negotiations pursuant to section 84 of the Act until the tender committee has approved the successful proposal.

(2) The negotiations shall be conducted by at least two members of staff of the procuring entity appointed by the accounting officer or the head of the procuring entity on the recommendation of the procurement unit.

(3) The members of staff conducting the negotiations under paragraph (2) shall prepare a report of the negotiations and submit it to the tender committee for decision making.

(4) The report prepared under paragraph (3) shall form part of the records of the procurement.

59. (1) A procuring entity that conducts procurement using the request for quotations method pursuant to section 88 of the Act shall be subject to the procurement thresholds set out in the First Schedule.

(2) For the purpose of determining the persons to be given a request for quotations under section 89 of the Act, a procuring entity shall-

(a) prepare a list of qualified persons

   (i) selected from the list maintained under Regulation 8(3)(a);

   (ii) from its own knowledge of the market;

(b) submit the list prepared under paragraph (a) to the tender committee for approval; and

(c) ensure a fair and equal rotation amongst the persons on the list kept under paragraph (a) in respect to giving the requests for quotations.
Submission of quotations.

60. A request for quotations prepared by a procuring entity under section 89(2) (d) of the Act shall set out –

(a) a requirement that quotations be submitted in sealed envelopes; and

(b) the mode of delivery of the sealed envelopes to the procuring entity.

Opening and evaluation of quotations.

61. (1) The opening, evaluation and comparison of quotations shall be carried out jointly by the procurement unit and the user department of the procuring entity.

(2) Where the procurement unit is of the view that the successful quotation is higher than the prevailing market price, the procurement unit shall reject the quotations and repeat the process by giving a fresh request for quotations to a set of new persons in the list approved by the tender committee under Regulation 59(2) (b).

(3) Pursuant to section 30 (3) of the Act the procurement unit shall not accept a quotation under section 89(4) of the Act if the quotation is above the prevailing real market price.

Direct procurement.

62. (1) A procuring entity that conducts procurement using the direct procurement method pursuant to section 74 of the Act shall be subject to the procurement thresholds set out in the First Schedule.

(2) Where a procuring entity uses direct procurement, the procuring entity shall record the reasons upon which it makes a determination that the relevant condition set out in section 74 of the Act has been satisfied.

(3) A procuring entity shall, within fourteen days after the notification of the award of the contract, report any direct procurement of a value exceeding five hundred thousand shillings to the Authority.

(4) The procedure for negotiations for proposals set out in Regulation 58 shall apply mutatis mutandis to negotiations relating to direct procurement pursuant to section 75(a) of the Act.

(5) A procuring entity shall not enter into a contract under section 75 (c) of the Act unless it is satisfied that the offer-

(a) meets the requirements of the procuring entity as specified under paragraph (2); and

(b) is at the prevailing real market price.

Low value procurement.

63. (1) For the purposes of section 90 (2) of the Act, a procuring entity may use a low value procurement procedure only if-

(a) the estimated cost of the goods, works or services being procured per item is less than or equal to the prescribed maximum value as set out in the First Schedule;

(b) no benefit would accrue to the procuring entity in terms of time or cost implications if the procuring entity uses requests for quotations or any other procurement method;
(c) the procedure is not being used for the purpose of avoiding competition;

(d) the use of the procedure has been recommended by the procurement committee after a market survey

(2) The following procedure shall apply in respect to low value procurement-

(a) the procurement unit shall procure the goods, works or services from a reputable outlet or provider through direct shopping;

(b) an original invoice or receipt for the low value procurement of goods, works or services and the price paid shall be obtained and signed by the person undertaking the procurement.

64. (1) For purposes of section 92 of the Act, the Authority may allow the use of specially permitted procedure-

(a) where exceptional requirements make it impossible, impracticable or uneconomical to comply with the Act and these Regulations, or

(b) where the market conditions or behavior do not allow effective application of the Act and these Regulations, or

(c) for specialized or particular requirements that are regulated or governed by harmonized international standards or practices

(2) A procuring entity shall-

(a) first obtain the approval of its tender committee; and

(b) submit the proposal and all the tender documents to the Authority for approval before proceeding with the procedure.

(3) The Authority shall maintain a register of all specially permitted procedures allowed

(4) the Authority shall issue detailed guidelines for concessioning or public private partnership

65. All contract award decisions shall be taken by the appropriate award authority, in accordance with the levels of Authority specified in the First Schedule.

66. (1) A procuring entity shall, upon rejecting unsuccessful tenders return any tender securities and any unopened financial proposals.

(2) Where so requested by an unsuccessful tenderer, a procuring entity shall, within fourteen days after a request, provide written reasons as to why the tender, proposal or application to be pre-qualified was unsuccessful.
(3) The reasons given under paragraph (2) shall not contain any information on any other tender other than information that is publicly available from tender openings or published notices.

B - PROCEDURES IN REVIEWS

73. (1) A request for review under the Act shall be made in Form RB 1 set out in the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

(2) The request referred to in paragraph (1) shall-

(a) state the reasons for the complaint, including any alleged breach of the Act or these Regulations;

(b) be accompanied by such statements as the applicant considers necessary in support of its request;

(c) be made within fourteen days of-

(i) the occurrence of the breach complained of where the request is made before the making of an award; or

(ii) the notification under sections 67 or 83 of Act;
(d) be submitted in fifteen bound copies and a soft copy, pages of which shall be consecutively numbered;

(e) be accompanied by the fees set out in Part II of the Fourth Schedule which shall not be refundable.

(3) Every request for review shall be filed with the Secretary of the Review Board upon payment of the requisite fees.

(4) The Secretary shall acknowledge filing of the request for review.

74. (1) The Secretary shall immediately after the filing of the request under Regulation 73, serve a copy thereof on the procuring entity or Director General as the case may be.

(2) The copy to the procuring entity under paragraph (1) shall also contain a notification of the pending review and the suspension of the procurement proceedings of such procuring entity.

(3) Upon being served with a notification of a request, the procuring entity or the Director General shall within seven days or such lesser period as may be stated by the Secretary in a particular case, submit to the Secretary a written memorandum of response to the reasons for the request together with such documents as the Secretary may specify.

(4) The Secretary shall, within fourteen days of the filing of the request, notify all other parties to the review of the filing and such parties may, at their own expense, obtain copies of the request for review.

75. (1) The Secretary shall give reasonable notice of the date fixed for hearing to all parties to the review.

(2) The notice referred to in paragraph (1) shall be in the format shown in Form RB 2 set out in the Fourth Schedule.

76. Any party to a request filed under Regulation 73 shall, at the hearing thereof, be entitled to be represented by an advocate or any other person of his own choice.

77. (1) A party notified under Regulation 74 may file a preliminary objection to the hearing of the request for review to the Secretary of the Review Board within five days from the date of notification.

(2) The preliminary objection filed under paragraph (1) shall set out the grounds upon which it is based on and shall be served on the applicant at least one day before the hearing.

(3) The applicant may file a reply to the preliminary objection before the time of the hearing of the request.

(4) The Review Board shall hear the preliminary objection and make a determination whether to uphold or dismiss the same and shall record the reasons for the determination.
(5) If the Review Board dismisses the preliminary objection, it shall soon thereafter proceed to hear the request for review as scheduled.

(6) The fees chargeable for filing a preliminary objection shall be as set out in the Part II of the Fourth Schedule.

78. (1) The Secretary shall, at least three days before the date set for the hearing, invite the members of the Review Board to attend the hearing.

(2) The invitation under paragraph (1) shall set out the time, date, and place where the hearing shall take place.

(3) The business of the Review Board shall be transacted between 8.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. on normal working days unless otherwise agreed to by the Secretary.

79. Where any member of the Review Board has a direct or indirect interest in any matter before the Review Board, he or she shall declare his or her interest in the matter and shall not participate in the hearing or decision-making process of the Review Board in relation to that particular matter.

80. If on the day set for the hearing of a review for which due notification has been given-

(a) the applicant appears and the procuring entity fails to appear, the hearing of the request for review shall proceed in the absence of the procuring entity unless the Review Board deems it fit to adjourn the hearing;

(b) the procuring entity appears and the applicant does not appear, the request for review shall be dismissed unless the Board deems it fit to adjourn the hearing;

(c) if both parties fail to appear, the request for review shall be dismissed unless the Board deems it fit to adjourn the hearing.

81. At the hearing of the request for review, unless decided otherwise by the Review Board, the applicant shall be given the first opportunity to present the case in support of the request and the procuring entity shall be given an opportunity to reply thereto.

82. Where two or more requests for review are instituted arising from the same tender or procurement procedure the Review Board may consolidate the requests and hear them as if they were one request for review.

83. (1) A request for review may be withdrawn at any time before or during the hearing by notice in writing to the Secretary signed by the applicant and upon such notice being received the request for review shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(2) When a request for review is withdrawn, the Secretary shall forthwith inform the Review Board and all parties to the review of the withdrawal.
84. (1) Hearing of review proceedings shall be open to all parties to the review.

(2) The Review Board may, at the hearing of the request exclude any person from the hearing whom it deems is unruly, interruptive or otherwise conducts himself in an unreasonable manner.

85. The Review Board may engage an expert to assist it in proceedings in which it feels it lacks the necessary expertise but the opinion of the expert shall not be binding on the Review Board.

86. The Review Board shall not be bound to observe the rules of evidence in the hearing of a request under these Regulations.

87. An order of the Review Board certified by both the Chairman and the Secretary to be a true copy thereof shall in any legal proceedings be prima facie evidence of the issuance of that order.

88. All communications to the Review Board relating to matters pending before the Review Board shall be through the Secretary.

PART VII - INVESTIGATION, DEBARMENT AND DISPOSAL

89. An investigator appointed pursuant to section 102 of the Act shall not, in the course of investigation, advise a procuring entity on any matter relating to a procurement proceeding.

90. For the purposes of section 115 (2) of the Act, the Director – General, with the approval of the Advisory Board, may debar a person from participating in procurement proceedings on the ground that that person has breached a code of ethics issued by the Authority pursuant to section 139 of the Act.

91. Where a person is debarred from participating in procurement proceedings under section 115 of the Act, the debarment extends to any firm in which the debarred person has a controlling interest.

92. (1) A procuring entity shall, for the purposes of section 128 of the Act, establish a disposal committee comprising of at least five members as follows:-

(a) the officer in charge of finance;

(b) the head of the procurement unit who shall be the Secretary;

(c) the head of the accounting department; and

(d) two heads of end user departments, of whom one shall be the head of the end-user department disposing of the stores or equipment.

(2) The disposal committee shall select a chairperson from amongst its members.

(3) The disposal committee shall pursuant to section 128(2) of the Act, first meet within fourteen days of its appointment and subsequently at least once in every quarter.
(4) The accounting officer shall, pursuant to section 129(4) of the Act, give the disposal committee a written notice as to whether he accepts or rejects the recommendations of the disposal committee within fourteen days of receipt of the recommendations.

93. (1) A procuring entity may, pursuant to section 131 of the Act, dispose its unserviceable, obsolete or surplus stores and equipment to an employee of the public entity or a member of a board or committee of the public entity where-

(a) the time and cost required to dispose to any other person would be disproportionate to the value of the unserviceable, obsolete or surplus stores and equipment to be disposed;

(b) the employee is in possession of the stores or equipment to be disposed and may be given the first priority to purchase the same.

(2) Every disposal made by a procuring entity under paragraph (1) shall be reported by the accounting officer or head of the procuring entity to the Authority within fourteen days of the disposal.
